

Internal Motivational Practices

1. Encourage your children to do their schoolwork independently, without too much support from others.
2. Encourage your children to enjoy their schoolwork.
3. Provide home learning activities that supplement schoolwork.
4. Provide children with new learning activities when they become bored.
5. Allow children to answer questions and work problems on their own instead of doing the work for them.